KACF Hosts Inaugural Golf Classic on June 14th at Harbor Links

New York, N.Y. — The Korean American Community Foundation (KACF) will host its 2010 Inaugural Golf Classic on June 14, 2010 at the Harbor Links Golf Club in Port Washington, NY.

A sold-out event with expected participation from over 130 guests, the Golf Classic will begin with a noon shotgun start on Harbor Links' challenging course. Those choosing not to golf are welcome to join in the dinner and drinks during the "19th hole."

This is the first time that KACF is hosting a Golf Classic under the leadership of Co-Chairs Dr. Mingi Choi, Jin S. Chun, David Chung, Joey Lee, Jeffrey Seo and James Wohn. The proceeds from this event will support KACF and its grantee partners as they seek to improve lives and strengthen the Korean American community in the greater metropolitan New York area.

Golf Chair and Board Member James Wohn said, "Our inaugural KACF Golf Classic will be successful in that we know it will exceed our initial projections and raise funds to support our grantee partners. Judging from the tremendous response, we fully expect to make the KACF Golf Classic an annual event for years to come."

Founded in 2002, KACF has grown to become a trusted source of philanthropy within the Korean and Asian American communities. In its first year of funding in 2003, KACF awarded grants totaling $60,000. In just seven years, KACF has awarded nearly $1.5 million in grants to nonprofit organizations that primarily work with low-income individuals and families. Additionally, KACF has been doing significant work in building philanthropic participation and leadership in the Korean American community, in particular working with trained volunteers in the grantmaking process.
