KACF hosts Korea vs Greece World Cup Viewing Party with Proceeds going to KACF

New York, N.Y. — The Korean American Community Foundation (KACF) will host a Korea vs. Greece World Cup viewing party at 7:30 a.m. on June 12th at Circle, located on 41st street between 6th Ave and Broadway. A portion of the proceeds from this event will go towards KACF and its Dollar-a-Day Campaign.

KACF Board members, Eun Sang Cho and Jeffrey Seo, initially planned this viewing party as a “Circle of Friends” event, an informal gatherings hosted by KACF Board and Steering Committee members to educate friends and colleagues on the work of KACF and engage them in grassroots fundraising. As the excitement and interest around the World Cup grew, this informal party had to expand into a bigger venue like Circle. “The KACF World Cup event at Circle is a wonderful occasion to bring people together to not only cheer for our beloved South Korean soccer team but also to celebrate our identity as Korean Americans. In doing that, we want to take this opportunity to talk to people about KACF and our work in the community in empowering people to build safe and healthy lives,” said Eun Sang Cho.

Circle will be broadcasting the match live on multiple projection screens. A cash bar will be open and food will be catered for guests who are interested in purchasing continental breakfast. Raffle prizes include an Apple iPad and gift cards. There is no cover charge. Anyone interested in joining the festivities as Korea makes another bid at the World Cup, are invited to email info@thecirclenyc.com for table reservations and indicate that they wish to be a part of the KACF group.
